

“Plan to Stay”

A Poem for Peachtree City

In the hush of trees and whispering leaves,
Where winding paths and sunlight weave,
There lies a town both calm, quiet, and true.
A place where hearts find something new.
The trees stand tall, a timeless grace,
Guardians of this gentle place.
Their rustling song, the breeze's sigh,
Beneath a broad and peaceful sky.
Here, neighbors greet with open hands,
And kindness grows like grains of sand.
A woven quilt of "me" and "you,"
A close-knit bond the years renew.
The laughter of children, the hum of wheels,
The warmth a quiet street reveals
A city shaped by love and care,
By families choosing to grow there.
It's not just streets or scenic views,
But something deeper we all choose:
A community that makes us say
We didn't just visit...
We planned to stay.

In October 2024, Healing with Art N Sound hosted the Community Tent at the Magnolia Fine Arts Festival. Participants were asked to design their own miniature golf carts and write a word or phrase that expressed Peachtree City. Lei Rhyne, founder of Art N Sound, took those words and created a poem about our beautiful city.
